

JEHOVAH WITNESSES

David C F Wright PhD

The most people know about Jehovah Witnesses is that they refuse to have blood transfusions based on their interpretation of Acts 15.20.

They are also known for knocking on your door in groups of two to talk to you and/or give you a leaflet to read. It is also true that they have regular meetings in their Kingdom Halls to discuss and find an answer to any question given to them which they could not answer.

A Christian is someone who has accepted Jesus Christ as their own personal Saviour and follows Him and His teachings.

Jehovah Witnesses believe that Jesus Christ is dead, that He was just a man. His human experience ended on the Cross. Before He came into the world he was the archangel Michael.

The trinity is utter nonsense they assert. The Holy Spirit is denied.

Death is the wages of sin. During the millennium all spirits will be raised and given a second chance. People are punished for Adam's sin. People will die if they do not take up the second chance.

Jesus Christ does not guarantee resurrection to anyone or guarantee the second chance in the millennium. Adam may be brought back in the millennium to stand trial for sin.

No one has immortality by any means. But, as we have said, all who died without Christ will be given a second chance although this is not guaranteed. The second death is extinction; there is no everlasting torment. The second trial will determine if we have eternal life.

The 144,000 of Revelation 14 are all Jehovah Witnesses. They are the elite.

As in these previous essays, what I write here is what is in print with the Jehovah Witnesses and the Watchtower Society.

Jehovah Witnesses are not Christians.
